Designations:

Certified Financial Planner (CFP): CFP certificants must pass the comprehensive CFP Certification Examination, pass CFP Board's Candidate Fitness Standards, agree to abide by CFP Board's Code of Ethics and Professional Responsibility which puts clients' interests first and comply with the Financial Planning Practice Standards which spell out what clients should be able to reasonably expect from the financial planning engagement. In addition to completing courses that cover the financial planning topics required for CFP certification, a bachelor's degree (or higher), or its equivalent (in any discipline, from an accredited college or university) is required to attain CFP certification. The bachelor's degree requirement is a condition of initial certification; it is not a requirement to be eligible to take the CFP Certification Examination.

Chartered Life Underwriter (CLU) designation: issued from The American College. To earn the CLU designation, candidates must: (1) have three years of full-time business experience within the five years preceding the awarding of the designation; and (2) complete eight required courses and three elective courses representing an average study time of 400 hours. To maintain the designation, designees must complete 30 continuing education credits every two years.

Chartered Financial Consultant (ChFC) designation: issued from The American College. To earn the ChFC designation, candidates must: (1) have three years of full-time business experience within the five years preceding the awarding of the designation (an undergraduate or graduate degree from an accredited educational institution qualifies as one year of business experience); (2) complete six core and two elective courses; and (3) successfully complete a final proctored exam for each course. To maintain the designation, designees must complete 30 continuing education credits every two years.

Certified in Long-term Care ("CLTC"): The CLTC designation is a long-term care planning designation granted by the Corporation for Long-term Care Certification to individuals who satisfy educational, work experience and ethics requirements. Recipients of the CLTC have completed a rigorous multidisciplinary course and examination that focuses on long-term care. To maintain this designation, the CLTC must satisfy continuing education requirements and adhere to the CLTC Code of Professional Responsibility

DISCIPLINARY INFORMATION

Michael Green does not have any material disciplinary history to disclose.

OTHER BUSINESS ACTIVITIES

Your advisor makes investment decisions for clients. Where permitted by law, your advisor may receive mutual fund 12b-1 fees, service fees, due diligence fees, marketing reimbursements, or other payments relating to your investment(s) in or otherwise supporting your advisor's activities regarding the securities and insurance products recommended, purchased, or held in your investment advisory program. You should be aware that these fees, payments, and other compensation presents a conflict of interest because your advisor may have a greater incentive to recommend those investment advisory products or programs or make investment decisions regarding investments that provide such additional compensation to your advisor.

Insurance Agency Affiliations

Michael Green is also a licensed insurance professional. Implementations of insurance recommendations are separate and apart from Michael Green's role with Apollon. As an insurance professional, Michael Green receives customary commissions and other related revenues from the various insurance companies whose products are sold. Michael Green is not required to offer the products of any particular insurance company. Commissions generated by insurance sales do not offset regular advisory fees. This practice presents a conflict of interest in recommending certain products of the insurance companies. Clients are under no obligation to implement any recommendations made by Michael Green or the Firm.

In addition to the activities described above, your advisor is also engaged in the following business activities:

- Michael Green is the treasurer, Lowcountry Equine-Assisted Psychotherapy, Inc., non-profit, start date: 4/8/2015, 0-5 hours per month, 0-5 hours during securities trading hours.
- Michael Green is the treasurer of the Board of Trustees, Mason Preparatory School, non-profit, start date: 9/1/2016, 6-20 hours per month, 0-5 hours during securities trading hours.
- Michael Green is the Interim Director of Operations, Mason Preparatory School, 80 hours per month during securities trading hours. Michael Green is compensated in this capacity.

ADDITIONAL COMPENSATION

Michael Green has additional business activities where compensation is received that are detailed above.

SUPERVISION

Michael Green serves as an Advisor of Apollon and is supervised by Michael Herman, the Chief Compliance Officer. Mr. Herman can be reached at (843) 277-3287.

Apollon has implemented a Code of Ethics, an internal compliance document that guides each Supervised Person in meeting their fiduciary obligations to Clients of Apollon. Further, Apollon is subject to regulatory oversight by various agencies. These agencies require registration by Apollon and its Supervised Persons. As a registered entity, Apollon is subject to examinations by regulators, which may be announced or unannounced. Apollon is required to periodically update the information provided to these agencies and to provide various reports regarding the business activities and assets of the Advisor.
