OTHER BUSINESS ACTIVITIES

Your advisor makes investment decisions for clients. Where permitted by law, your advisor may receive mutual fund 12b-1 fees, service fees, due diligence fees, marketing reimbursements, or other payments relating to your investment(s) in or otherwise supporting your advisor's activities regarding the securities and insurance products recommended, purchased, or held in your investment advisory program. You should be aware that these fees, payments, and other compensation presents a conflict of interest because your advisor may have a greater incentive to recommend those investment advisory products or programs or make investment decisions regarding investments that provide such additional compensation to your advisor.

Insurance Agency Affiliations

David Palkovitz is also a licensed insurance professional. Implementations of insurance recommendations are separate and apart from David Palkovitz's role with Apollon. As an insurance professional, David Palkovitz receives customary commissions and other related revenues from the various insurance companies whose products are sold. David Palkovitz is not required to offer the products of any particular insurance company. Commissions generated by insurance sales do not offset regular advisory fees. This practice presents a conflict of interest in recommending certain products of the insurance companies. Clients are under no obligation to implement any recommendations made by David Palkovitz or the Firm.

ADDITIONAL COMPENSATION

David Palkovitz has additional business activities where compensation is received that are detailed above.

SUPERVISION

David Palkovitz serves as a Wealth Management Advisor of Apollon and is supervised by Steven Mills, the Chief Compliance Officer. Mr. Mills can be reached at (843) 277-3287.

Apollon has implemented a Code of Ethics, an internal compliance document that guides each Supervised Person in meeting their fiduciary obligations to Clients of Apollon. Further, Apollon is subject to regulatory oversight by various agencies. These agencies require registration by Apollon and its Supervised Persons. As a registered entity, Apollon is subject to examinations by regulators, which may be announced or unannounced. Apollon is required to periodically update the information provided to these agencies and to provide various reports regarding the business activities and assets of the Advisor.
