Designations:

Certified Financial Planner (CFP): CFP certificants must pass the comprehensive CFP Certification Examination, pass CFP Board's Candidate Fitness Standards, agree to abide by CFP Board's Code of Ethics and Professional Responsibility which puts clients' interests first and comply with the Financial Planning Practice Standards which spell out what clients should be able to reasonably expect from the financial planning engagement. In addition to completing courses that cover the financial planning topics required for CFP certification, a bachelor's degree (or higher), or its equivalent (in any discipline, from an accredited college or university) is required to attain CFP certification. The bachelor's degree requirement is a condition of initial certification; it is not a requirement to be eligible to take the CFP Certification Examination.

Chartered Life Underwriter (CLU) designation: issued from The American College. To earn the CLU designation, candidates must: (1) have three years of full-time business experience within the five years preceding the awarding of the designation; and (2) complete eight required courses and three elective courses representing an average study time of 400 hours. To maintain the designation, designees must complete 30 continuing education credits every two years.

The Chartered Financial Consultant™ (ChFC®) designation: program prepares you to meet the advanced financial planning needs of individuals, professionals, and small business owners. You'll gain a sustainable advantage in this competitive field with in-depth coverage of the key financial planning disciplines, including insurance, income taxation, retirement planning, investments, and estate planning. The ChFC® requires three years of full-time, relevant business experience, nine two-hour course-specific proctored exams, and 30 hours of continuing education every two years. Holders of the ChFC® designation must adhere to The American College's Code of Ethics.

Program Objectives:

- Function as an ethical, competent and articulate practitioner in the field of financial planning
- Utilize the intellectual tools and framework needed to maintain relevant and current financial planning knowledge and strategies.
- Apply financial planning theory and techniques through the development of case studies and solutions.
- Apply in-depth knowledge in a holistic manner from a variety of disciplines, namely, estate planning, retirement planning, or non-qualified deferred compensation.

DISCIPLINARY INFORMATION

Michael Lewis does not have any material disciplinary history to disclose.

OTHER BUSINESS ACTIVITIES

Your advisor makes investment decisions for clients. Where permitted by law, your advisor may receive mutual fund 12b-1 fees, service fees, due diligence fees, marketing reimbursements, or other payments relating to your investment(s) in or otherwise supporting your advisor's activities regarding the securities and insurance products recommended, purchased, or held in your investment advisory program. You should be aware that these fees, payments, and other compensation presents a conflict of interest because your advisor may have a greater incentive to recommend those investment advisory products or programs or make investment decisions regarding investments that provide such additional compensation to your advisor.

Insurance Agency Affiliations

Michael Lewis is also a licensed insurance professional. Implementations of insurance recommendations are separate and apart from Michael Lewis's role with Apollon. As an insurance professional, Michael Lewis receives customary commissions and other related revenues from the various insurance companies whose products are sold. Michael Lewis is not required to offer the products of any particular insurance company. Commissions generated by insurance sales do not offset regular advisory fees. This practice presents a conflict of interest in recommending certain products of the insurance companies. Clients are under no obligation to implement any recommendations made by Michael Lewis or the Firm.

ADDITIONAL COMPENSATION

Michael Lewis has additional business activities where compensation is received that are detailed above.

SUPERVISION

Michael Lewis serves as an Advisor of Apollon and is supervised by Steven Mills, the Chief Compliance Officer. Mr. Mills can be reached at (843) 277-3287.

Apollon has implemented a Code of Ethics, an internal compliance document that guides each Supervised Person in meeting their fiduciary obligations to Clients of Apollon. Further, Apollon is subject to regulatory oversight by various agencies. These agencies require registration by Apollon and its Supervised Persons. As a registered entity, Apollon is subject to examinations by regulators, which may be announced or unannounced. Apollon is required to periodically update the information provided to these agencies and to provide various reports regarding the business activities and assets of the Advisor.
